Jarmul Returns To Pittsburgh As Part Of Parente Healthcare Expansion Plan

PITTSBURGH, PA – June 26, 2007 –Robert J. Ciaruffoli, chairman and CEO of Parente Randolph, LLC, has announced the relocation of Benjamin T. Jarmul, Jr., a Principal in the Firm’s Healthcare Business Services Group in the Philadelphia office, to the Pittsburgh office. Jarmul is very familiar with the region as he was born and raised in Oakmont, a suburb of Pittsburgh, and eventually began his career working in the Pittsburgh area for an international Accounting firm.

“Ben is a highly experienced professional, who has been providing accounting, auditing, tax and management advisory services to healthcare clients for more than 25 years,” Ciaruffoli said. “His move back to the Pittsburgh region is part of our commitment to growing and expanding our Healthcare Services Group in the Western part of the state. Ben has been a valuable asset to our Firm and is sure to become an even greater asset to healthcare clients in the Pittsburgh region.”

A Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Certified Healthcare Professional (CHFP), Jarmul’s areas of expertise include auditing integrated healthcare delivery systems, hospitals and other providers. He is also experienced in financial reporting and analysis, review and enhancement of internal controls and re-engineering of accounting and financial reporting processes.

Jarmul earned a bachelor of science degree in Accounting from The Pennsylvania State University. He is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accounting and the Healthcare Financial Management Association.

Parente Randolph is a leading mid-Atlantic independent accounting and consulting firm and is among the top firms of its kind in the United States. The firm provides accounting, audit, tax and general business consulting services to corporations and closely held businesses from offices in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
