Parente Randolph Adds Five to Pittsburgh Accounting Team

PITTSBURGH, PA – July 9, 2007- Robert J. Ciaruffoli, chairman and CEO of Parente Randolph, LCC, has announced the addition of five new junior accountants in the Pittsburgh office.

“Parente Randolph is committed to growing our presence in the Pittsburgh area,” Ciaruffoli said. “The addition of new staff members will help us better serve both our existing client base and new clients.”

The five new accountants include Andrew Bock, Derek Diethorn, Joseph Dunlap, Ashley Sedlock and Katie Titus.

Bock is a graduate and University Scholar of the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg where he earned a degree in Management with a major in Accounting. His experience includes internship with UPMC-Strategic Business Initiatives, where he was responsible for performing due diligence and market analysis for potential projects. He resides in Verona, Pennsylvania.

Diethorn earned a bachelor of science degree in Business Administration with a major in Accounting and a minor in Economics from the University of Pittsburgh. He worked as an Accounting intern at Transtar, where he reconciled company balances, assembled aged accounts receivable monthly reports, examined company assets and analyzed over and under-applied variances of company functions for upper management. He resides in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Dunlap earned a bachelor of science degree in Business Administration with a major in Accounting from Clarion University of Pennsylvania. He previously held an Accounting Co-Op position at Adecco Technical, where he was responsible for organizing and administering a new inventory process for calculating rebuild engine inventory, helping reconcile inventory and calculating premiums and discounts on make-versus buy items. He resides in Fredonia, Pennsylvania.

Sedlock earned a bachelor of science degree in Business Administration with majors in Accounting and Accounting Information Systems from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh. She worked as a corporate accounting intern with the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, where she completed monthly and quarterly balance sheet reconciliations, prepared and uploaded journal entries to PeopleSoft and worked with internal audit and completed audit recommendations. She resides in Pittsburgh, PA.

Katie Titus is a graduate of University of Pittsburgh with a bachelor of science degree in Business Administration with a major in Accounting. She previously served as an aviation risk intern at Marsh & McLennan, where she was responsible for auditing and preparing files, researching prospects for potential aviation exposure and developing department workload assignment spreadsheets. She also worked as an intern and junior accountant at Love, Scherle & Baner, P.C., where she performed audits on non-profit schools, as well as accounts receivable confirmations. She resides in Moon Township, Pennsylvania.
