Parente Randolph's Malahoski Appointed to AICPA Committee

PHILADELPHIA, PA – August 20, 2007 –John J. Malahoski, CPA, a Principal and Managing Director of Audit and Accounting at Parente Randolph, has been appointed to the Employee Benefits Plan Audit Quality Center Executive Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

The AICPA established the Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Center (Quality Center), a firm-based voluntary membership center for firms that audit employee benefit plans, to help CPAs meet the challenges of performing quality audits in this unique and complex area. The Executive Committee governs the Quality Center, establishes general policies and oversees activities.

At Parente Randolph, Malahoski focuses on accounting, auditing and consulting services for not-for-profit organizations, manufacturing companies, family-owned businesses and employee benefit plans. He earned a bachelor of science degree from the University of Scranton and his masters degree in Business Administration from the University of Pittsburgh.

Malahoski is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants. He previously served as a member of the AICPA Accounting and Review Services Committee, the AICPA Professional Issues Task Force and the AICPA Technical Issues Committee.

Parente Randolph is a leading mid-Atlantic independent accounting and consulting firm and is among the top firms of its kind in the United States. The firm provides accounting, audit, tax and general business consulting services to corporations and closely held businesses from offices in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
