

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Rhonda Nelson
(570) 830-0615

Parente Randolph Principal Appointed to AICPA Executive Committee

PHILADELPHIA, PA – August 26, 2007 –Glenn Newman, Principal In Charge of Parente Randolph's Forensic and Litigation Services practice in the Firm's Philadelphia office, has been appointed to the Business Valuation and Forensic & Litigation Services (BV/FLS) Executive Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). The AICPA established the BV/FLS Executive Committee to focus on strategic planning, including identification of market and other forces that impact CPAs who provide consulting services involving fraud, valuation and litigation services.

Newman is a CPA/ABV, CFE and specializes in providing financial consulting analyses related to matters in dispute. He earned a bachelor of science degree in Accounting from Pennsylvania State University and a master of business administration in Economics/Finance from West Chester University. He frequently speaks before professional and educational groups on various aspects of financial analysis, litigation consulting, fraud investigations and economic damages.

Parente Randolph is a leading mid-Atlantic independent accounting and consulting firm and is among the top firms of its kind in the United States. The firm provides accounting, audit, tax and general business consulting services to corporations and closely held businesses from offices in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Texas. To learn more, visit www.parentenet.com.

###

