Parente Randolph's Cathy Green Appointed To AICPA Committee

PHILADELPHIA, PA – September 12, 2007 – Cathy Green, CPA, senior manager in the Philadelphia office of Parente Randolph has been appointed to serve on the Member Tax Practice Improvement Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). The appointment for the 2007-2008 volunteer service year will enable Green to contribute to the accounting profession by working on various interesting and valuable assignments.

At Parente Randolph, Green focuses on accounting for high net worth individuals and pass through entities. She earned her bachelor's degree in Business Administration and a Master's of Accountancy from the University of Georgia. Green co-authored an article entitled Tax Practice Management – The Office of the Future, which appeared in the September issue of The Tax Advisor. She is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants.

Parente Randolph is a leading mid-Atlantic independent accounting and consulting firm and is among the top firms of its kind in the United States. The firm provides accounting, audit, tax and general business consulting services to corporations and closely held businesses from offices in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Texas.
